Discover the epitome of mountain luxury at 1487 Vail Valley Drive, nestled within the prestigious Vail Golf Course neighborhood. Architecturally designed by Kyle Webb of KH Webb with interior finishes designed by Katy Allen Interior Design and being meticulously constructed by Mexamer Construction Group. This transitional style two-story residence blends the perfect amount of mountain traditional with contemporary by having huge glass walls and clean lines but with a warm mountain traditional approach. The Kyle Webb design seamlessly brings the outdoors in with contemporary elegance, offering an unparalleled retreat for discerning homeowners who love the amenities of Vail Village but also want the quiet neighborhood feel of the Vail Golf Course area. Walk or bike ride into Vail or hop on the free Town of Vail bus with a stop only steps away, making this location highly desired for access to Vail Village without dealing with the hassle of parking. Only a few stops, and you are dropped right at the lift in Golden Peak. Whether seeking a full-time residence or a seasonal retreat, this is a place where memories are made and cherished for a lifetime. Upon arrival, be captivated by panoramic mountain views greeting you through floor-to-ceiling windows. Slide open the glass doors to connect the opulence of the indoor open floor plan with the expansive outdoor living spaces, where the Gore Range and White River National Forest serve as the perfect backdrop for every occasion.
