Understanding Your Financial Status

Before we dive into house-hunting, it's crucial to understand your current financial situation. This includes knowing your income, your monthly expenses, and your credit score. These factors determine how much mortgage you can afford and how favorable your loan terms will be.

By partnering with Impact Mortgage Group, you gain access to experienced mortgage professionals who can help clarify these elements and guide you towards making informed decisions.

Start Saving For Your Down Payment

Down payment is a key component of your home buying process. The amount you save for this can significantly impact your mortgage rate, monthly payments, and the amount of house you can afford.

We'll help you determine the most suitable down payment based on your financial capabilities and housing needs. Plus, we'll provide you with effective strategies to speed up your savings process.
